CREW Network

2008 Winter Council Meeting

What are dine arounds and how do they work?

The dine arounds are designed to provide CREW members an opportunity to network with other CREW Network members to share ideas, interests, and business opportunities. Dine around expenses will be split evenly between the attendees; this will include transportation. It is suggested that you bring cash to the dine around; alcoholic beverages will be purchased on a separate ticket.

How do I sign up for the Friday night dine arounds?

The sign up sheets will be available at the AZCREW hospitality table during receptions and meeting breaks. The hospitality table will also be able to provide additional local information including attractions, services, netwalks, shopping and more.

What are the Board Hosted dine arounds?

The board hosted dine arounds provide the chapter delegates/alternate delegates and chapter presidents the opportunity to have dinner and network with their board/trustee liaisons in order to share ideas, interests, and business opportunities. The designated attendees will pre-register for this event and will be pre-assigned a restaurant location. The process of splitting the check will be the same for both the board hosted dine arounds and the Friday night dine arounds.

How do I share the information received at the Council Meeting with my Chapter?

CREW Network staff will post the slides on the CREW Network Web site. The chapter delegates will also receive an article via email that can be included in your monthly newsletter to your members.

I am not a delegate for my chapter, can I attend the Council Meeting?

Yes, all CREW Network members are welcome and encouraged to attend the Council Meeting. Delegates/alternate delegates and Network Board members will be assigned seats for voting purposes; all other CREW Network members will sit at the guest tables.

I am not a CREW Network member, can I attend the Council Meeting?

The CREW Network Council Meeting are open to CREW Network members only. However, non-members are welcome to attend the receptions, luncheon and professional development workshops.
